VOCABULARY

OF MYTHOLOGY AND NAMES OF PERSONS

ANCIENT AND MODERN

OF DIFFERENT PRONUNCIATION IN THE TWO LANGUAGES.

NB. The proper names of persons and places always begin with a capital, both in English and Italian; yet they are sometimes printed here with a small (accented) initial in order to point out their pronunciation.

(Throughout this second volume the letter g, in English words, though not printed g, before e and i is to be pronounced like the English j, except in Teutonic words. In doubtful cases, look for the pronunciation of g, ch and th, as marked in the first volume).
